Art Unit: 1644

1. Claims 10-18 and newly added claims 19-20 are pending.
2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in United States before the invention by the applicant for patent (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 10-17 and newly added claims 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by U. S. Patent No. 6,028,099 (A), as evidenced by the Cole Eye Institute, both of record for reasons supplied in the Office Action mailed 10-01-04.

It is noted that the '099 patent teaches administering the active ingredient in about 0.5 to about 25% by weight in the solution, which encompasses the claim limitation of 19, about 100 micrograms to 10 milligrams. Furthermore, consisting essentially of language is considered open unless applicant can demonstrate the additional compounds materially effect the claimed invention.

Applicant arguments filed 4-7-05 have been fully considered but are not found persuasive.

Applicant argues the 37 CFR 1.131 declaration filed 4-27-05 by Dr. Kuijpers obviates the rejection.

However, the 37 CFR 1.131 declaration was not considered because it was improperly executed. A 37 CFR 1.131 declaration needs to be signed by all three inventors to be properly executed.

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claim 18 stands rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention, for reasons of record supplied in the Office Action mailed 10-1-04.

Applicant's arguments filed 4-7-05 have been fully considered but are not found persuasive.

Applicant argues they have provided multiple references demonstrating enablement of topically administered eye drops for eye diseases.

All of these documents have been reviewed, and they have to do with treating an increase in intraocular eye pressure due to glaucoma. However, the '950 patent is more relevant to the instantly claimed invention as it particularly discusses problems associate with administering drugs to the posterior of the eye in diseases such as diabetic retinopathy, while applicant's supplied documents speak primarily about treating glaucoma, not a posterior eye disease, but an intraocular disease involved in increased pressure in the fluid within the eye.

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 1644

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 10-17 and 19-20 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 2, 5-7, 9-14, 22-24 and 26 of copending Application No. 09/519,647. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both applications claims recite treating AMD with octreotide.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Applicant has stated they will provide a Terminal Disclaimer when one of the applications are allowed.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
